THE “TEACHABLE” (HEALTHY) LEADER – PART II

Question: So, what is the #1 quality that allows people to change and grow?

Answer: Humility – which gives us access to God and access to wisdom through other people.

In Other Words

- ◆ Teachability is a willingness to admit we don’t have all the answers.
- ◆ Our most rapid growth comes when we access the wisdom of other people.
- ◆ “We only think to the level of what we’re exposed to.” (Dr. A.R. Bernard, Pastor in Brooklyn, NY)
- ◆ “God is using you as much as He can, but not all that He could.” (Howard Hendricks)
- ◆ “Only a fool knows everything.” (Charles Crabtree)

It’s Really True That:

The biggest room in the world is the room for improvement!

And:

Growth removes limitations and increases our capacity so that God can give us more and more and more and more!

And here’s more Good News:

Humility will lessen stress in your life!

(How?)

1. You won’t feel the need to talk about yourself.
2. You won’t drive a car (or dress) to be noticed.
3. You welcome the wisdom of others around you.
4. You can bury your ego and receive correction.
5. You live free from needing constant affirmation and validation.
6. You can quickly forgive your offenders.
7. You never feel cheated in serving God.
8. You live free from the “blame game” and playing the “victim card”.
9. You can celebrate the successes of others.
10. You embrace repentance and live free from besetting (habitual and controlling) sins.
11. You rest in “His” performance and not your own.
12. You minister from approval (in Christ) instead of for approval (from people).

And never forget this leader:

- ◆ Anointing exposes you to hurts in the heart! (Why?)
 - God has promoted you to serve (your assignment).
 - Your gifting has made room for you.
